

Weekly News Roundup – 14 Oct 2016

General

WHO and partners call for better working conditions for midwives, WHO press release, 13 Oct 2016

Big questions remain about global contraceptive access, Devex, 13 Oct 2016

Academic

The Impact of Increased Access to Family Planning on Fertility and Health in Malawi, Innovations for Poverty Action, October 2016

Added to “Community Resources”:

Examining the association between motivations for induced abortion and method safety among women in Ghana, Women & Health, 16 Sept 2016

Malawi

Linvell Chirwa: Midwife in Malawi, Medium, 12 Oct 2016

Malawi Loosing Grip On Population, Capital Radio, 11 Oct 2016

Namibia

Sexual Health Education Urgently Needed, Namibian, 14 Oct 2016

Prevent maternal and child mortality, Namibian, 12 Oct 2016

Nigeria

A quarter of 9.22 million annual pregnancies in Nigeria are unplanned for - Report, WorldStage, 13 Oct 2014

We can't address maternal health without family planning – Minister, The Eagle, 13 Oct 2016
(Same story as above – different headline!)

Nearly 120 women die daily in Nigeria while giving birth – UNFPA, National Mirror, 12 Oct 2016

ECOWAS urges population cut for economic growth, Daily Trust, 11 Oct 2016

Society urges FG to implement 2014 National Health Act, World Stage, 9 Oct 2016

Reversing Nigeria's family planning stagnation, NAIJ.com, 26 Sept 2016

South Africa

Co-operation can address sexual and reproductive health challenges, Business Day, 9 Oct 2016

Tanzania

4.5bn/- for maternity wards in Dar hospitals, Daily News, 12 Oct 2016

Men involvement vital for family planning: expert, The Citizen, 11 Oct 2016

Teen pregnancy still big challenge, The Citizen, 10 Oct 2016

Tanzania makes quantum leap in reducing maternal, child mortality, Daily News, 9 Oct 2016

Uganda

Controlling fertility rates alone won't lead to middle-income status, The Observer, 12 Oct 2016

Would You Inject Your Own Birth Control? These Women Already Are, Refinery29, 11 Oct 2016

Abortion: Management policy released but clerics cite murder, The Monitor, 10 Oct 2016

The plight of Ademu and other teenage mothers, New Vision, 8 Oct 2016

And this...

Woman Gives Birth to 'Frog', The Herald (Zimbabwe), 10 Oct 2016