

Weekly News Roundup – 30 Dec 2016

General

Contraceptive Market expected to show steady growth by 2021, QWTJ, 27 Dec 2016

19 States Passed 60 New Abortion Restrictions in 2016, The Intercept, 27 Dec 2016

Academic

The Impact of a Sexual and Reproductive Health Intervention for American Indian Adolescents on Predictors of Condom Use Intention, Journal of Adolescent Health, 27 Dec 2016

Kenya

Ongoing doctors strike makes Kenyans desperate, Deutsche Welle, 30 Dec 2016

Why you should get the most from your gyno this Christmas, The Standard, 24 Dec 2016

Woman loses five babies as medics strike in Taita Taveta continues, Daily Nation, 23 Dec 2016

Malawi

Malawi woman claims given birth to stones, Nyasa Times, 29 Dec 2016

Nigeria

The Population that Gets Experts Cracked, This Day, 30 Dec 2016

Mimiko rated high in addressing maternal mortality, PM Nigeria, 28 Dec 2016

Tanzania

When aborting isn't a good option, The Citizen, 26 Dec 2016

Mother-to-child HIV transmission down 20pc, The Citizen, Dec 2016

Uganda

South Sudan refugee mothers get \$4m grant, The East African, 29 Dec 2016

Zambia

Govt aware of challenges faced by young people, Times of Zambia, 26 Dec 2016

Cry of a teenage mother, Times of Zambia, 26 Dec 2016